MARC TRAVEL AWARDS ANNOUNCED FOR THE ASSOCIATION FOR MOLECULAR PATHOLOGY 2008 ANNUAL MEETING

Bethesda, MD – FASEB’s MARC (Minority Access to Research Careers) Program has announced the travel award recipients for the Association for Molecular Pathology 2008 Annual Meeting in Grapevine, TX, October 29, - November 2, 2008. These awards are meant to promote the entry of underrepresented minority students, postdoctorates and scientists into the mainstream of the basic science community and to encourage the participation of young scientists at the Association for Molecular Pathology 2008 Annual Meeting.

Awards are given to poster/platform presenters and faculty mentors paired with the students/trainees they mentor. This year MARC conferred 2 awards totaling $3,700.

POSTER/ORAL PRESENTERS (FASEB MARC PROGRAM)

Bharathi Vennapusa, University of New Mexico

AMP SOCIETY AWARDS

Joaquin Garcia, University of Pittsburgh

The FASEB MARC Program is funded by a grant from the National Institute of General Medical Sciences, National Institutes of Health. A primary goal of the MARC Program is to increase the number and competitiveness of underrepresented minorities engaged in biomedical and behavioral research.

FASEB is composed of 21 societies with more than 80,000 members, making it the largest coalition of biomedical research associations in the United States. FASEB enhances the ability of biomedical and life scientists to improve—through their research—the health, well-being and productivity of all people. Our mission is to advance health and welfare by promoting progress and education in biological and biomedical sciences through services to its member societies and collaborative advocacy.
