

Funded Meeting Scholarship Opportunity

Available Exclusively for the FASEB 2022 Ubiquitin and Ubiquitin-like Proteins Conference

Thanks to generous support our sponsors, we have several meeting scholarships of up to $500 available to trainees who are presenting a talk and/or poster at the meeting. Awards will be used to reimburse attendee registration or travel. Trainees from under-represented groups and/or with financial need are particularly encouraged to apply.

Minimum Eligibility Requirements:

- Must present a talk or poster at the meeting.
- Must attend the entire conference.
- Must be one of the following:
 - Postdoctoral Fellow
 - Graduate Student

How to Apply

Please send an email to Ub.meeting.2022@gmail.com asking to be considered for this award, along with a statement indicating how you meet the eligibility criteria listed above. All information will be kept confidential.

Application Deadline

The deadline for travel award applications is July 8th, 2022 at 12 noon eastern standard time. Attendees receiving the award will be informed and will be reimbursed for their registration/travel expenses shortly after the conclusion of the conference.
