NIH is the nation’s primary funder of biomedical research, leading to advances in scientific knowledge, better health, and economic growth.

NSF is the only federal agency that supports research and education across all scientific disciplines, underwriting scientific training and promoting discovery.

GEORGIA’S 4TH DISTRICT

Federal funding provides support for researchers and trainees who conduct biological and biomedical research in this district.

2019 FEDERAL RESEARCH FUNDING

NATIONAL INSTITUTES OF HEALTH (NIH)

$3.36M TOTAL FUNDING

5 RESEARCH SITES

NATIONAL SCIENCE FOUNDATION (NSF)

$1.71M TOTAL FUNDING

3 RESEARCH SITES