NIH is the nation’s primary funder of biomedical research, leading to advances in scientific knowledge, better health, and economic growth.

NSF is the only federal agency that supports research and education across all scientific disciplines, underwriting scientific training and promoting discovery.

Federal funding provides support for researchers and trainees who conduct biological and biomedical research in this district.

MARYLAND’S 3RD DISTRICT

2019 FEDERAL RESEARCH FUNDING

NATIONAL INSTITUTES OF HEALTH (NIH)

$26.6M TOTAL FUNDING
24 RESEARCH SITES

NATIONAL SCIENCE FOUNDATION (NSF)

$2.83M TOTAL FUNDING
11 RESEARCH SITES