2018 Federal Research Funding - Puerto Rico

Federal funding provides support for researchers and trainees who conduct biological and biomedical research in this territory.

National Institutes of Health (NIH)
- Total Funding: $52.0M
- Research Sites: 14
- NIH is the nation’s primary funder of biomedical research, leading to advances in scientific knowledge, better health, and economic growth.

National Science Foundation (NSF)
- Total Funding: $20.5M
- Research Sites: 13
- NSF is the only federal agency that supports research and education across all scientific disciplines, underwriting scientific training and promoting discovery.

U.S. Department of Agriculture (USDA)
- Total Funding: $16.9M
- Research Site: 1
- The USDA National Institute of Food and Agriculture funds competitive grants for nutritional and agricultural research, bringing cutting-edge science to complex agricultural challenges.

U.S. Department of Energy (DOE)
- Total Funding: $660K
- Research Sites: 2
- The DOE Office of Science is the nation’s largest funder of basic physical sciences research and manages 10 national laboratories that provide scientists with cutting-edge facilities.

---

Learn more & join the conversation! [FASEB.org/FundingFacts] [@FASEBorg] [F@FASEB.org] [LinkedIn @FASEB]